EMPATHY

Kia ora and welcome to the latest addition of our Alfriston School Admin News.

One more sleep and another 2024 school term begins. As always the dedicated Alfriston School team have been working hard to plan exciting learning experiences and opportunities. Please take the time to look at the events / trips for the term and see what you can attend or help with. We love to have you involved!

The first school wide event for the term is our school cross country on Thursday 1st August. This event starts at 10.00am on the school field. Detailed information was sent out last week and is available on our school website. We hope to see you all there.

If you can help on the day please email principal@alfriston.school.nz
